Destination Information

Spain is Europe’s number one travel destination. The beautiful sunny climate is just one reason for this. Due to the geographical location of the Spanish peninsula, about 75% of Spain’s borders are coastal with wonderful sandy beaches and beautiful sea views.

A wealth of regional variety is on offer with the green Celtic north of Galicia, Asturias and the Basque country, the Arabic roots of sunny Andalucia and the cosmopolitan cities and cultural treasures of Madrid, Barcelona and Valencia. The Pyrenees boast mountains up to 3.500m high and the beautiful Balearics and the Canary Islands offer breathtaking beauty.

No other European country is accessible by more direct flights, or has as many amazingly set 18-hole golf courses or Michelin-star chefs. Constantly updated infrastructure, majestic culture, rich gastronomy, security and renowned hospitality.....all this combines to make Spain an incomparable destination for a company event or incentive!

Unique/Popular Venues:

Casa Batlló

This architectural Gaudi jewel is a premium venue for events of varying sizes and purpose. It offers over 2000m² of modernist Catalan art-nouveau rooms located in Barcelona's most aristocratic central district; Passeig de Gràcia.

Poble Espanyol

The Poble Espanyol is an architectural synopsis of the Spanish autonomous communities. Here one can experience all seventeen autonomous communities through the handicraft markets, cultural displays, samples of food and folk shows. It is ideal for the celebration of large ceremonies, gala dinners, parties, concerts and other meetings.

Palau de la Musica, Catlana

A UNESCO World heritage Site of Modernist architect Lluís Domènech i Montaner. What was a Palau dedicated just to music has become a Palau dedicated to music, culture, social events, leisure times activities and business, with the same spirit that made its construction possible but with a perspective that has developed with the times.
