Destination Information

Prague, the Czech capital, is one of the world's most beautiful cities with an inimitable atmosphere created by its millennium of history. Countless museums, galleries and other tourist sights can also be found in the regions of the Czech Republic.

The map of the Czech Republic is dotted with historical towns, castles, chateaux, churches and monasteries. 12 UNESCO sites make up a unique part of the Czechs' cultural heritage, hardly anywhere else on earth will you find such numbers of these sites in such a confined area.

The Czech countryside is utterly captivating with over 70 golf courses or ski resorts for winter fun. Its Spas are famous, offering a century's old tradition for guests to receive treatment or just relax in pleasant surroundings.

Unique/Popular Venues:

Prague Castle - Symbol of Czech statehood. Spanish Hall and its golden baroque ornamentation are famed visitor attractions

Municipal House - is one of the most remarkable constructions of Prague Art Nouveau. At the time of its creation it was criticized by some architects as its style was considered to be formally outdated.

Malostransky Palace - The Jesuits built the House for the Professed in 17th century and was decorated in late Baroque style.

Cesky Krumlov - equals more than an exceptional complex of 300 historical buildings. The town presents itself to visitors also as a hub of culture, conventions and tourism.
