Destination Information

"The land of silver", Argentina truly is a destination treasure. Argentina is the world's eighth largest nation, but with only 36 million people it is one of the least densely populated countries in the world. Because of its immense size it offers a huge variety of natural landscapes and a dynamic cultural heritage to match. In no other country will you have so many different destination opportunities, all with great hotels, fantastic cuisine and good business facilities

Unique/Popular Venues

Opera Pampa: a unique show about Argentina's history where the beginnings of a nation and its traditions are displayed. After the show guests may try the world famous Argentine beef.

El Zanjón: Some historians point to the Zanjón de Granados ravines as the site of the first settlement of Buenos Aires in 1536.

Yatch Club Puerto Madero: specially blueprinted and designed with all the technical advances, built in England with state-of-the-art materials and techniques and put together in Argentina.
